

CHARITABLE GIFTS OF RETIREMENT ASSETS

For many, our most valuable assets are those held in retirement accounts. Over the past several decades, you've likely been putting money away for retirement. You may discover that you've saved more than you need, giving you more to share.

Retirement assets can make excellent charitable gifts for both the donor and nonprofits.

At the Saint Paul & Minnesota Foundation, we've been helping Minnesotans turn surplus retirement assets into charitable gifts for decades.

HOW WE WORK TOGETHER

- 1 Talk with a Foundation Gift Planner about your charitable goals.
- 2 Our experienced staff will work with you and your advisors to determine if a gift of retirement assets is right for you.
- 3 Establish a donor advised fund (DAF) with the Foundation that can easily accept gifts of retirement assets.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

- + You will be guided each step of the way.
- + You will work with a local partner who will act in your best interest at all times.
- + Your goals are our goals.
- + You will get more than a transaction. You will get a trusted partner in giving.
- + You will work with a local team who knows the community.

THREE WAYS TO MAKE A GIFT OF RETIREMENT ASSETS

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION*

- Name your DAF at the Foundation as the beneficiary of all or a portion of your retirement account.
- Maintain ownership and control of your assets during life, as well as the ability to change your beneficiary at anytime.
- You may qualify for a charitable estate tax deduction.
- After your death, your gift flows from your retirement account to your DAF.

Tax ID #: 41-6031510

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION

- Give up to $111,000 per person or $222,000 per couple per year to charity directly from your IRA.
- Make a one-time gift of up to $55,000 directly from your IRA to establish a Charitable Gift Annuity or Charitable Remainder Trust.
- You must be at least 70½ years of age.
- The gift may count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD).
- A qualified charitable distribution avoids income tax, but does not provide a charitable income tax deduction.
- Some funds at the Foundation are eligible to receive a qualified charitable distribution.

TESTAMENTARY CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUST

- Name a charitable remainder trust (CRT) as the beneficiary of all or a portion of your retirement account.
- After your death, your gift flows from your retirement account to the CRT and creates an income stream for those you choose.
- When the trust comes to its scheduled end, the remainder flows to your DAF to support your favorite charitable causes.
- Maintain ownership and control of your assets during life, as well as the ability to change your beneficiary at anytime.
- You may qualify for a charitable estate tax deduction.

How Alfred Used Retirement Assets to Establish His Donor Advised Fund

Alfred recently retired after 40 years of working for a large Twin Cities company. He devoted his life to his career, his family and volunteer work. His wife, Sophia, passed away a few years ago and they never had children of their own.

Like many people, he was diligent about contributing as much as he could to his retirement plan every year. His financial planners project that he will likely have more retirement assets than he needs for his lifestyle. He is now contemplating what to do with the excess.

Alfred is curious about how he might use his retirement assets to support his favorite causes. After speaking with his advisors, he learned about donor advised funds and that he could use his retirement assets to establish his own fund and support his favorite causes for a long time to come.

Alfred contacted a Gift Planner to discuss his charitable goals. He created a donor advised fund in the name of his late wife, and named the fund as the beneficiary of most of his retirement assets. Upon his passing, the assets will flow to the fund and will make annual grants in Sophia's name to all their favorite nonprofits for many years to come.
